

Natural Edge Bowl Class

Natural Edge Bowls as seen below, also called live edge bowls are unique bowls that use the natural contour of the bark side of a log as the top rim edge of the bowl.

The instructor, Bill Kram is an experienced wood turner who will help students turn a Natural Edge Bowl in this class and will assist students with key points such as balance, maintaining bark and shaping. This three-hour class will have a charge of $10.

Sign up here

